In most cases in the above countries you should contact the local publisher.

In some cases, for WGRG songs & liturgical works contained in other publishers' books - for example, songs from the God Comes Tomorrow collection, GIA Publications, USA -, although WGRG retains the copyright to the words and music, the publisher owns the 'form' of the music (e.g. the typesetting) so no copies can be made of songs from such collections without permission from the publisher.

Performance, Recordings, Broadcast

WGRG is a member of PRS for Music (Performing Right Society Ltd.), who handle performance rights on our behalf.

PRS represents songwriters, composers and music publishers for use of musical compositions and lyrics, and licenses live and recorded music for broadcast on radio and TV, streamed online or downloaded, and performed or played in public.

WGRG is a member of MCPS (Mechanical-Copyright Protection Society Ltd.), who handle mechanical rights on our behalf.

MCPS collects royalties for works that are reproduced on a CD, DVD or LP, or recorded and used in TV or radio, or online.

PRS services both societies, is jointly owned by them, and has representation agreements with a worldwide society network.

For more info on PRS/MCPS: prsformusic.com

WGRG is a member of PPL (Phonographic Performance Ltd.), who represent recording rightsholders and performers for the use of their recordings and performances when they are broadcast on radio, TV and online.

PPL has agreements with collective management organisations (CMOs) around the world.

For more info on PPL: ppluk.com

PRS for Music and PPL, at their discretion, do not make a charge for music played or performed during ‘Acts of Divine Worship’ (regular church worship services) where no charge is made for admission.

PRS for Music and PPL Church licences are available from CCLI to cover live music performances at concerts or during social events, and the playing of music recordings in activities on church premises in the UK.

Online Worship

Please see separate Streaming Guidelines.

“Freedom Is Coming”/ Peace of Music material

WGRG - on behalf of Wild Goose Publications - administers copyright in the UK and Ireland only, for South African songs in the ‘Freedom is Coming’ collection, arranged and translated by Anders Nyberg of Peace of Music (formerly Utryck). The same conditions apply as for Wild Goose Resource Group material, except that the copyright acknowledgement should read:

*Copyright © 1990 Wild Goose Publications, Iona Community, Glasgow, Scotland.
Reproduced by permission.*

One of these songs, “Siyahamba – We Are Marching”, has 2 versions. We control the version with one verse, sung first in Xhosa, then English.

There is another extended English text version (also covered by CCLI). When reproducing this, please add to the copyright acknowledgement:

English verses 2-3 by Andrew Maries, copyright © Sovereign Music UK. Used by permission. sovereignmusic@aol.com

From 2021, WGRG no longer handles Commercial permission for the extended version. Please contact Sovereign Music UK.

Other authors' songs in WGRG collections

Occasionally, WGRG publishes songs by other authors/composers. In some cases, we can grant permission to use that author's copyright element of the song (text/music/arrangement). In other cases, you may need to gain additional copyright permission from that author/ copyright holder.

Please contact us for guidance, whether the use is non-commercial or commercial.

Royalties are a major source of WGRG's funding, so we have to take copyright seriously. We never fail to be impressed by how folk who use our material deal with it with a remarkably high degree of care and attention.

We appreciate that very much, so ... THANK YOU!
